

Heaven On Earth

I am dreaming of Heaven on Earth,
It is not long until this birth.
Day by day, people become aware,
This very moment is very rare!

Look within, feel who you are.
You are a wonder, you are a star!
Find your true self, chock full of love,
Be that pure soul, you've been dreaming of.

Give love to others, feel it return,
It is not long until we all learn
That we're here to live peaceful lives and to create
All sorts of perfection, let's open the gate.

Open your heart, open your mind,
And in your life, you will soon find
Nothing but happiness, wonder and bliss,
Humanity and Earth are so ready for this!
