

I Feel it

I feel it, I know it, and all can see,
There is no woman stronger than me!
I speak my truth, I'm in my power,
I feel it every minute of every hour.

I feel it every hour of every day,
I feel it strongly in every way.
I feel it every day and all week long,
I feel in my power, and oh, so strong!

I feel it ~ in every week,
And for myself, I always speak!
I do it each week of every month,
Because I have so much powerful strength!

I feel it each month of every year.
There is not one single thing to fear!
I feel it all year and forever more,
And on this strength I can always draw!!
