

Living in the NOW!

Yesterday has passed us by, now it is TODAY!
Tomorrow is not yet here, and one can never say
"Now it is yesterday" or "Now it is tomorrow",
Making either NOW, one can neither beg nor borrow!

You see in reality, there is only this moment of now.
When one starts to realize this, one can only say "Wow!"
The fictitious tomorrow will never come, it always is today,
Once we all recognize this, there is more time to play!

Live in the now, know who you are, start to have some fun!
Be creative, be kind to all, enjoy the Earth and Sun!
Now is here, it really IS, what more can I say?
Leave behind all concerns for tomorrow and yesterday!!
