

I Mosey On . . .

As I mosey on, as I wander through,
My life experiences, feeling what is true,
And what is false, and altogether lies,
I see who is genuine and who's in disguise!

I feel in my heart, I ask my wise self,
What must I do to retain natural health.
And how to make forward flowing improvement
To my life, to reach my inflowment.

Each day I know, using my heart-mind,
That all I create comes from inside.
So beautiful thoughts flow through my heart,
And I know this is the best way for me to start!

I appreciate, so much, everything in my now.
No need to stress on the when or how
To create my visions, I know they are here,
No matter the day or month or year!

Yes, I mosey on and wander through,
Life, with experiences old and new,
I feel so grateful to so many friends,
This feeling and gratitude knows no ends.

So peace and love to everyone I know,
Appreciation and love, through me, does flow.
Let's join together, on Earth for peace,
So enjoyment and fun for all can increase!!
