

Knoware In Time

The place to be is knoware in time,
A place of comfort, where one feels divine,
A knowing, and awareness, a place of delight,
Where fun occurs all day and at night!

Knoware in time is where you can live,
In knowingness and awareness, where one can give
Ones love and kindness to everyone around,
And where one often hears barely a sound.

It's a place of knowing ones self from the heart,
A place to go when things fall apart.
Just go to your heart and know who you are,
Know you're a creator, a bright shinng star!

When we can get to knoware in time,
We can enjoy some cookies and wine!
We can enjoy our pleasures of being on this earth,
Our lives are full of jollity and mirth!!

So where are you now? Do you know where to go?
This little ditty to you just might show
You that a simple, fun little rhyme,
Can help you to find your way to knoware in time!
