

Heart Song

I've found my beautiful, earthly Heart Song.
The vision of it has kept me so strong!
It is a place of comfort, of Love and of peace,
Just thinking about it causes my strength to increase!

In more moments of now, my earthly body will reside there
The feelings of joy and excitement will never compare!
A nurturing, embracing feel all around,
Where animals and nature are the only sound.

Love is here, there and everywhere.
I feel it so strong when I just stand and stare!
My tribe will be here, we'll all come together,
And enjoy our time sharing this wonderful treasure!
