

Where are we going?

Where are we going? Where have we been?
Is this all "real", or is it a dream?
What is the purpose, which path shall I pick?
Is what I see genuine, or is it a trick??

Some days I'm all lost and feel such a mess,
All jumbled up, feeling all stressed.
But I move on and rally, I get positive,
Because I know - I've got good reason to live!

I focus on my visions, my knowing and truth.
Focusing on inflowment stops me being aloof!
I see our Earth Mother, I feel her Love.
I know in my heart she has so much to give.

So, why are we here? I'm not sure that I know.
But I am enjoying continuing to grow.
I love my life, my self and my friends.
Excitement and deep loving sure knows no ends!!
