

Living in the Moment

Living in the moment, living in the now.
Choosing to be creative, never asking how!
Being awake, being aware, choosing to just be,
This is the sort of life, that is good for me!

I ask not why, I ask not what, I just simply do.
Every day, in every way, I do something new.
It is so simple, it is fun, time is not a part.
When we creat, and do our thing, it's a work of art!

So, is this life? Is it right - or completely wrong?!
No thing is wrong, when you smile and sing your own song!
So, love yourself, love your life, know you create it all.
Be example, be love and life, it is your own call!
